AVOID PLANNED OBSOLESCENCE

- Repair what can be repaired.
- Don't buy the latest trends just for the sake of fashion—they often have a shorter lifespan (2-3 years), especially in electronics.

The European Union is taking measures to combat planned obsolescence. Since 2021, a regulation has been in place promoting the right to repair, aiming to make products more durable and easier to fix.

RETURN TO ARTISAN WORKSHOPS

- Take your torn pants to a tailor—they can turn them into summer shorts.
- A ripped bag can look as good as new after a few days with a leatherworker—don't throw it away!

Artisan workshops are still thriving. According to recent data from CNA and ISTAT, by the end of 2021, Italy had 1,287,950 artisan businesses employing around 2.6 million workers, representing 21.2% of the national business landscape.

Rediscover the craftsmanship of artisans through your choices.
